with reference to their needs, and make a report to him.

Butler and Sophia Chase.

The entertainment at All Souls' Church for the benefit of the training school for nurses last evening was one of the enjoyable and successful ones ever given by the church. The exercises were opened by Prof. Bernays with a violin solo. Mr. Little followed with his "Chalk and Cheese." The audience were enthusiastic in their appreciation of the entertainment.

Leopold Hebrants was tried in the police court yesterday afternoon on a charge of being a vagrant. He proved that he acted as a salesman for the church of the Holy Spirit, Mr. W. H.
Foley. The court ruled that such was inadmissible, but it could not be authorized if the defendant was conducting a sale elsewhere.
The case was dismissed.

The marshal of Baltimore, Md., sent here on a warrant yesterday James J. Clark, charged with violating section 140 of the Revised Statutes in using the mail for fraudulent purposes, and he was turned over to Marshal Wilson. Evidently the district attorney doesn't think much of cases for after investigation the man was released on his personal recognitance.

Too Much Bred to Kill.
Andrew J. Coleman, colored, was tried in the police court yesterday for keeping a dangerous dog. Nace Boone, a colored boy, said that the dog bit him.

"It is half terrier, half Scotch, and mixed with the bull."

"If you say $10, but will remit the fine if you

The Permit System.
The permit work this year has been the largest since the plan was established. It is getting very popular with the public. One reason that seems to be commendable is the cheaper prices of the work. The number of advance notices received for such work during the long year opened well for the system, and the way it is carried out.

We take pride in offering the largest and most complete stock of lime fruit juice and other non-alcoholic drinks to be found in the city.

Soldiers' Graves at Antietam.
The graves of the soldiers at Antietam will Wright will make addresses.

ters for every brand of lime fruit juice known to the trade.

The successful introduction of the new Cable Cash Carrier System, and its hearty approval by the thousands who last week witnessed its wonderful work-to its utmost capacity. To do this we will inaugurate a three
